

Famous People Descriptions for Name the Fame Game Game Board

She is the first woman with a disability elected to the U.S. House of Representatives and first member of Congress who was born in Thailand. She is a veteran of the Iraq War, where she was severely wounded, losing both legs and injuring one arm.	He is transforming hospital and home accessible design and founded the Wounded Warrior Project, creating accessible homes for veterans. He woke up one day paralyzed from the waist down.	She is a consultant on the humane treatment of animals. She has autism.
Though he can't remember people's faces, he paints portraits. He has significant learning disabilities and a rare health condition.	She is an abolitionist and reformer who escaped from slavery and led others to freedom. She had a seizure disorder caused by a brutal beating when she was a slave.	He was a young teacher who came from France to help start the first school for Deaf children in the United States that taught sign language. He was Deaf.

Famous People Descriptions for Name the Fame Game

Game Board

He lost his hearing but continued to compose classical music that is still listened to today.	He became blind as a result of an accident when he was 3. While he was still in school he started creating a new printing system for the blind.	Born and raised in Vermont, he later moved to Pennsylvania, where he was elected to the U.S. Congress. He opposed slavery and worked to establish rights for African Americans. He was born with a clubfoot and limped all his life.
He developed a way of training horses that is based on understanding the way horses naturally relate to others and the world around them. He has a rare visual disorder and cannot see colors.	Because of his leadership and tireless advocacy, he became known as “father of the ADA.” He had polio when he was 4 and used a wheelchair.	She was diagnosed with autism as a child. Doctors recommended she be medicated and institutionalized. She became an actress.

Famous People Descriptions for Name the Fame Game Game Board

He is a famous actor who used his fame to help educate people about Parkinson's.	She used a wheelchair after a childhood illness left her paralyzed. Her disability did not stop her from advocating for rights for women.	He first became famous for his role as Corky in the television series "Life Goes On." He has Down syndrome.
She is famous for improving the care of wounded soldiers. She had speech disabilities and trouble with stuttering.	She is the first legally blind athlete to qualify and compete in the Olympics.	Known as "Dummy" Hoy during his lifetime, he brought umpire signs to baseball. He was Deaf.

Famous People Descriptions for Name the Fame Game Game Board

Blind from childhood, he became one of the greatest jazz pianists of all time.	She's known for her unusual colorful paintings and her involvement in Mexican political causes. She had polio as a child and was in pain most of her life after being badly injured in a bus accident when she was 18.	Her life story is believed to have inspired the story that later became the film "Million Dollar Baby." Unlike the main character in the film, she survived with brain injuries and is now a painter.
She was an activist and social reformer This famous woman's early life was celebrated in the play and film "The Miracle Worker." She was Deaf-blind and an activist for women's rights and peace.	She is famous for starting the settlement house movement in the United States, helping immigrants create better lives for themselves. She had physical disabilities as a child and continued health problems later in life.	She is famous for her photographs of the Depression and of American workers. She had polio.