Nobody really knew, nobody really said anything, I don't know, I started telling like, I don't know. It was awkward because I didn't know what to say to anybody about it because I didn't know what it was but I knew that I felt a different way about things and I was getting more stressed out about things and probably over-analyzing situations I was going to be put in and getting nervous for school and some days I didn't want to go to school because I would just be like, well I don't want to go around all these people, I don't want to deal with it today, so I would just keep myself out of school.
