

Inclusion Five Transcript

I think I definitely avoided a lot of community situations because I knew that there would be a situation where I would get really worked up and my anxiety would get really high because when there's a lot of people around, I definitely, my anxiety rate goes up.