

Inclusion Six Transcript

My senior year I had a really big support system and it really, everybody at that point, It was on the table and I had gone through an IEP and whatever, so people understood the kind of how I felt about things, so I kinda did feel like, wow these people like wanna help me get along not have this anxiety and they understand how I feel.