

Accessibility Three Transcript

I have been to events where I wanted to go see a poetry reading or a movie or a film or a presentation or some athletic event and I get to the venue and find it to be inaccessible or sometimes so poorly accessible that it's just really frustrating. You just spend all your time finding the entrance and exit or securing a seat, something of that sort.